ABOUT CHARITY MATTERS

Charity Matters started out as a place to tell the stories of everyday non-profit heroes and to give voice to those without one. It quickly became clear that this evolving platform has become much more than a filter for goodness. Charity Matters has evolved into a place of inspiration, conversation, encouragement and most importantly catalyst for change.

We hope you will continue to join us on our journey to inform, inspire and make a difference, in ways big and little.

Our purpose is simply to help the helpers and inspire others to make a difference.

There you have it. That's what matters and what we are all about. What matters to you?

ABOUT HEIDI

Heidi Johnson is a nonprofit founder, a storyteller, and a believer in good. She uses the power of connection to bring people together for a purpose greater than themselves through her vast work in the nonprofit sector.

For the past decade she has communicated powerful stories to inspire others to serve and give through her blog and podcast Charity Matters.

As the co-founder of The Spiritual Care Guild, a nonprofit at Children's Hospital of Los Angeles, and the Executive Director of TACSC, a nonprofit Catholic youth leadership organization, Heidi uses her experience to create a filter for goodness in Charity Matters that connects people and causes.

She not only highlights remarkable nonprofit founders but strives to inspire each of us to give the best of ourselves to one another, and to the world.
